

Eastern Washington Area
Health Education Center
Eastern Washington University
start something big

ewu.edu/ewahec

CULTURAL HUMILITY WITH LGBTQ+ PATIENTS

Friday, January 25, 2019, noon-1 p.m.

EWU Spokane Campus, Eastern Washington Center Building

668 N. Riverpoint Boulevard

Auditorium, Room 122

Attend online or in person!

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Define common terms and concepts related to serving LGBTQ+ populations.
2. Apply basic counseling techniques in supporting LGBTQ+ individuals.
3. Identify opportunities for continued learning and growth related to gender identity and sexual orientation.

This Live activity, Cultural Humility with LGBTQ+ Patients, with a beginning date of 01/25/2019, has been submitted for accreditation through the American Academy of Family Physicians. This application is currently pending.

To register: ewu.edu/CELGBTQ

(https://ewu.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_dWeOYclqRe6yNvUCijjtMg)

SESSION PRESENTER

Dr. Franco (they/them) has been the Pride Center Manager at Eastern Washington University since October 2015.

They have 10 years of experience facilitating professional development trainings around diversity, social justice, organizational effectiveness, and equity. Originally from Stockton, CA, Dr. Franco earned a Ph.D. in organizational leadership from the University of San Diego, a M.A. in women's studies from San Diego State University, and a B.A. in social work from Sacramento State University.

SPONSORED BY:

Eastern Washington Area
Health Education Center
Eastern Washington University
start something big